Community News~

- Residents of Dallas Center can now order groceries on-line from Perry Hy-Vee and/or by phone from The Baker's Pantry. The groceries will be ready for pick-up at The Baker's Pantry every Thursday afternoon. SAILDC volunteers will help residents who cannot drive out of town order their groceries, and will deliver them to their homes if needed. A credit or debit card will be required to use this service, since we cannot send cash or checks through the Internet to Hy-Vee at this time. If you are interested in these services, come to Memorial Hall, Wednesday, September 7th any time between 5:00 and 8:00 to learn more. Winter is coming, and if we can get enough people using this service you won't need to brave the roads to keep fresh food on your tables! For more information, call SAILDC at 515-344-2074 or email info@SAILDC.COM.
- Farmers' Market continues through September 30th at the Raccoon River Valley Trail Head on Fridays from 4:00-7:00 PM.

- Iowa State University Extension and Outreach will be offering Together We Can: Creating a Healthy Future for our Family, which will be held on Tuesday evenings beginning September 13 in Waukee. This series is for single parents with young children or couples in strained relationships with the goal being to work together to resolve conflict and be involved in their child's life. Together We Can helps participants develop a positive vision for their child and map out the steps to achieve it. "Research shows children benefit when parents collaborate," said ISU Extension Educator, Lisa Mickelson. "This program is really about gaining the knowledge you need to come together and create the best outcomes for your child." Together We Can will be held on Tuesday evenings, September 13 – October 4 from 6 - 8 pm at Waukee Christian Services (1155 SE Boone Dr., Waukee). Thanks to funding through the Dallas County Children's Advocacy Council the program is offered at no cost and free child care is also provided. Pre-registration is required by contacting Lisa Mickelson, ISU Extension Educator, at Imickel@iastate.edu or (515) 993-4281.
