8. Updates on farmers market (Nadine)
  - a. Farmers Market starts this week in Mound Park. There will be a community information table with brochures from different organizations and local resources. Discussion on items that can go on that table. Community garden was planted. Nadine will get food trucks for the farmers market and skate rink for later markets after the market gets going. Looking forward to a great farmers market season.
9. Update on bike event(s) (Kelly)
  - a. Okay to postpone until the fall-
  - b. Jarod Morford with Iowa Bike- recommends two events, Iowa Bike education, and Park to Park ride.
  - c. Idea- incorporate that in to Fall Festival somehow, perhaps not during fall festival, but either right before or right after would be good. Kelly to get more planning details and get back to the group on next steps with that, but looking good overall here to do in the fall.
10. Update on Spurgeon Manor/Memorial tree project (Bob)
  - a. Rotary has decided to hold off on getting the grant until next year. August of this year, Spurgeon hopes to have at least four pieces of exercise equipment installed. By next September, Rotary plans to put in a bocci ball court and a corn hole game, several benches, a sign board, and a 'little library' box to hold equipment as well. This winter, Rotary will continue working with Parks and Rec to plan this area. Bob will continue organizing volunteers to remove the stumps and shape the sides there to allow to easy mowing.
11. Other Board members updates
  - a. Gary will not be here July 6th.
  - b. Thoughts and discussion on Mound Park basketball court.
  - c. Thoughts on directing Brian on beginning project in Memorial Park with an entrance and sign.
  - d. Nadine to work on prioritizing parks priorities for council- will provide update at July meeting.
12. Adjourn at 7:49 pm.
